PROPRIETARY ARTICLE CERTIFICATE (PAC)

To Whom It May Concern,

This is to certify that RayStation® is our proprietary product developed by RaySearch Laboratories AB (publ), Sweden, that is marketed and sold globally. RayStation is a vendor agnostic, independent, flexible, and innovative treatment planning system. It combines unique features like unmatched adaptive therapy capabilities, fallback planning, multi-criteria optimization, optimization for HDR brachytherapy, and external beam therapy with photons, electrons, Cyberknife, protons, as well as helium and carbon ions. RayStation supports a wide range of treatment machines, providing one unified platform for all treatment planning needs and ensuring Cancer centers to increase the efficiency and increase the utilization of existing equipment such as treatment machines.

Yours Sincerely,

RAYSEARCH LABORATORIES AB (PUBL)
